

Warrant Office

The Warrant Office is comprised of one police officer, one operations officer, one support technician, and one office assistant. The Warrant Office is supervised by a lieutenant.

Personnel assigned to the Warrant Office process warrants, summonses, and related legal documents received from the courts, Probation and Parole offices, and other out of city agencies. Documents are entered into local, state, and national Record Management Systems, including VCIN (Virginia Criminal Information Network) and NCIC (National Crime Information Center) systems as necessary. In addition, officers arrange for the transportation of persons who are “wanted” in Norfolk and detained by the Department of Corrections in other in-state jurisdictions. In 2010, the Warrant Office processed over 11,600 newly issued warrants and over 13,300 served warrants.

The Norfolk Police working in partnership with the Norfolk Crime Line have created a website, accessible to the public that will contain information on persons wanted in the City of Norfolk. The information provided will include the name, descriptors, charge information, and when available, a picture of the wanted individual. http://norfolk.gov/Police/wanted_person.asp
